Welcome Message

September 1, 2018

We hope that this message finds you enjoying the light of the Amida's infinite wisdom and compassion.

The Buddhist Churches of America Federation of Buddhist Women's Associations is honored and excited to host the 16th World Buddhist Women's Convention. We welcome everyone to join us for this joyous occasion in beautiful San Francisco, California.

Since the inaugural convention in 1961, the world has become more divided and conflict driven, and our communities and families are impacted by this negativity. Today, we live and share in the Nembutsu teaching amongst communities and societies steeped in cultural and ethnic diversity. Therefore, it is incumbent upon us as Buddhist Women to "Live the Nembutsu," which is the theme for the 16th World Buddhist Women's Convention.

Women throughout the history of Shin Buddhism have dedicated their lives and supported the propagation of Jodo Shinshu Buddhism. Prime examples are Lady Eshinni and Lady Kakushinni. Lady Eshinni appreciated the Nembutsu teaching as expounded by her husband, Shinran Shonin, and supported his efforts to share the teaching with people from all walks of life. Lady Kakushinni, their youngest daughter, played a vital role in laying the foundation for the spread of the Nembutsu teaching so that future generations would be able to receive and rejoice in her father's legacy.

Reflecting upon what it means to Live the Nembutsu, and remaining ever mindful of the common thread of the dharma that brings us together as one community, let us remember the contributions of individuals such as Lady Eshinni and Lady Kakushinni with the hope that peace may prevail and the Nembutsu teaching may spread throughout the world.

Please find attached an informational packet and registration form. If you have other questions, please feel free to contact us.

We look forward to your visit when we will share and live the Nembutsu together.

御仏の無量光とお慈悲の内にお喜びの日々をお過ごしのことと存じます。

米国仏教婦人会連盟は第16回世界仏教婦人会大会を主催させて頂きます事はこの上なき名誉と存じます。この美しいサンフランシスコ、カリフォルニアで、この楽しい有意義な催しにご参加下さいます事を心より歓迎いたします。

1961年の第1回大会の時に比べ、世界は分離され、対立しています。そして我々の地域社会や家族は否定的、悲観的に頻拍しています、

今日、私達の地域や家族は多様な文化や人種の中にありながら、お念仏の教えを分かち合い、生かされています。それ故に、仏教婦人にとりまして、第16回世界仏教婦人会大会のテーマであります ”念仏に生かされて “ は大切な事であり

ます。
浄土真宗の歴史に於いての女性は浄土真宗を献身的にまいりました。特に恵信尼公と覚信尼公はその主な方々です。恵信尼公は夫である親鸞聖人が詳細に説かれた念仏の教えを正しく理解し、多くの人々と共に聖人のみ教えを分かち合い、支持されました。お二人の末娘である覚信尼公もお念仏の教えを広める為の地盤を敷かれ、極めて重要な役割を果たされました。その為、次世代の人々も聖人の教えを喜び、受け継ぐ事ができました。

念仏に生かされてという意味を考えるに当たり、私どもを地域社会と結び付ける仏法の筋道を心に留めて、平和が普及し、念仏のみ教えが世界中に広まることを望み、恵信尼公、覚信尼公の貢献を心に留めようではありませんか。

報告書並びに質問例の書類を添付致しました。もし、ご質問がありましたら、ご遠慮なくご連絡ください。またお会い致しました時に、念仏の喜びを分かち合う事が出来ます日を楽しみに致しております。

合掌

2. Convention Overview

The 1st World Buddhist Women’s Convention was held in Kyoto, Japan in 1961 and the Buddhist Churches of America Federation of Buddhist Women’s Associations is pleased to host the 16th World Buddhist Women’s Convention in 2019 in San Francisco, California, USA.

This convention is the only opportunity for Jodo Shinshu Buddhist followers to gather together on an international level; meet new people, learn together, share experiences and spread the circle of Dharma followers today and for generations to come and as such, everyone, women, men young and old, is welcome to join us. We are expecting 2000 representatives and friends from the continental United States, Canada, Hawaii, South America and Japan, including His Eminence Monshu Koshin Ohtani.

Together as Jodo Shinshu Buddhists from around the world we will share with gratitude all of the diverse and wonderful ways we are embraced in the Great Compassion of Amida Buddha and all the joyous ways we “Live the Nembutsu”, which is our theme.

This convention will start with a registration and an opening No Host Reception and Open Workshops (no sign-ups necessary) on Friday, August 30. Opening ceremonies will begin on Saturday, August 31 and closing at midday on Sunday, September 1, 2019. We will make every effort to offer presentations in three languages as much as possible: English, Japanese and Portuguese.

6. Keynote Speakers and Program Highlights

What does it mean to “live the Nembutsu”? The 16th World Buddhist Women’s Convention features two distinguished keynote speakers, each exemplifying a bold, distinctive life journey inspired by the Nembutsu. Reverend Yukiko Motoyoshi, resident minister of the Buddhist Church of Stockton, was born in Japan to a temple family, grew up in Hawaii, and, in the 1970s, became one of the few female Jodo Shinshu ministers serving in Hawaii, and now the mainland U.S. Professor Keiko Toro, also born to a temple family in Japan, has forged her own path in academia, and now, as an independent scholar researching Jodo Shinshu Buddhism globally. Each speaker will present a keynote message on the Convention theme, “Live the Nembutsu,” in both English and Japanese (with Portuguese translation).

6.1 Reverend Yukiko Motoyoshi

(English/Japanese)

Reverend Yukiko Motoyoshi

Resident Minister, Buddhist Church of Stockton
Buddhist Churches of America

Reverend Yukiko Motoyoshi was born on May 21, 1950, in Tokyo, Japan. She is the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Yushu Motoyoshi and Mrs. Sonoe Motoyoshi, both of whom were Hawaii-born Nisei (second-generation Japanese American). In 1966, her family moved back to Hawaii where she graduated from K'au High School and attended the University of Hawaii at Hilo, receiving her B.A. in Liberal Studies. She attended the University of Wisconsin-Madison where she earned her M.A. in Buddhist Studies. Rev. Motoyoshi received her Tokudo ordination from the Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha in Kyoto, Japan, in October 1977 and Kyoshi ordination in April 1978. From 1981-1983, she studied at the Gyo Shin Kyo Ko as a Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii scholarship student. Rev. Motoyoshi has served as a resident minister at several temples in the Honpa Hongwanji Mission (Hawaii Kyodan (District): the Honpa Hongwanji Hilo Betsuin (1978-1981; 1983-1985), Mililani Hongwanji (1985-1990), Lihue Hongwanji Mission (1990-2004), and Honpa Hongwanji Hawaii Betsuin (2004-2011). Since 2011, she has been the resident minister of the Buddhist Church of Stockton (2011-present), a member temple of the Buddhist Churches of America.

6.2 Professor Keiko Toro

(English/Japanese)

Professor Keiko Toro

Professor Keiko Toro is an independent scholar of “Everyday Buddhism,” whose wish is “to share the Jodo Shinshu teachings in a simple, practical, and enjoyable way both in Japanese and English” as her lifework. Born to a Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha ministerial family, her home temple is Honshuji, in Okazaki City, Aichi Prefecture. Honshuji was originally built by Rennyō Shōnin, a descendent of Shinran Shōnin, and the eighth chief abbot of Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha.

After finishing her Ph.D. courses at Kyoto University, Toro was a research fellow at the Institute of Buddhist Studies (IBS) from November 2002 - May 2003 and explored various issues in the translation of Shin Buddhist literature. She taught Japanese Buddhism and Jodo Shinshu at Jin-ai University in Fukui, Japan from 2011 to 2017. During her sabbatical year, from 2015 to 2016, she traveled around the world to research Jodo Shinshu outside of Japan. In 2017, upon serious reflection on her life goals, she decided to take a leave from academia to pursue her work, in her own way, as an independent scholar of “Everyday Buddhism.”

Her two publications in Japanese explore the ancient parable of Ajatasatru in the context of modern life and society in a popular, accessible style:

* アジャセからの贈りもの-耳で聞く『教行信証』の世界 (CD book)

Ajase kara no okurimono – mimi de kiku Kyogyoshinsho no sekai

“A Present from Ajatasatru” (Hojodo Press, Japan)

* 都路恵子のアジャセ法話 Toro Keiko no Ajase Howa

“Dharma Talks about Ajatasatru Stories” (DVD) (Hojodo Press, Japan)

6.3 Panel Presentation

Each District (Canada, Japan, BCA, Hawaii, and South America) will identify a representative speaker who is an active Jodo Shinshu Buddhist woman. Each panelist will reflect and share the way they “Live the Nembutsu.” Panel speakers will be speaking for 5-10 minutes each and a complete copy of the speech will be required by February 1, 2019 to facilitate translations.

6.4 District Entertainment

Each District (Canada, Japan, BCA, Hawaii, and South America) is requested to contribute to the Entertainment portion on Saturday evening, September 1, 2019 (song, dance, play, etc). Total performance time per district should be no more than 7 minutes in length. Districts will be contacted in March of 2019 to confirm their entertainment piece(s) that will be performed at the convention.

7. Workshops

The WBWC Program Committee has been working hard to present a diverse variety of workshops on the theme “Live the Nembutsu”. We are confident that everyone will find workshops that appeal to their interests.

Workshop offerings are subject to change.

7.1 Friday Evening (8/30/19): Open Workshops
