Kendo; 3:30pm

kendo, Japanese kendō (“way of the sword”), traditional Japanese style of fencing with a two-handed wooden sword, derived from the fighting methods of the ancient samurai (warrior class). The unification of Japan about 1600 removed most opportunities for actual sword combat, so the samurai turned swordsmanship into a means of cultivating discipline, patience and skill for building character

Founded in 1932, Obukan Kendo Club is a non-profit organization part of the Pacific Northwest Kendo Federation (PNKF), which is a member of the All United States Kendo Federation. Obukan practices Kendo, Bokutoh Kata, and Laido in Beaverton, Oregon. Beginner classes offer students of all ages to try and experience this martial art.
