Don't let February make you shiver

Reverend Jundo Gregory Gibbs

I hope you are all enjoying your lives. I hope that February is not making you shiver. I always take a risk referring to the weather since I write these articles a couple of weeks ahead of publication. I am sure you all remember that we had a very cold January. It is important to take care of yourself, avoid catching a chill and stay healthy. Also, it is important to enjoy your life. That is, as I sometimes remark, something no one else can do for you.

When I encourage you (and myself) to enjoy our lives, I really mean to experience them with positive appreciation. Not every event in our lives is pleasant, but each moment deserves our attention. I hope that OBT is one source of good things in your life. Last month we had the Ho On Ko seminar and service with Dr. Mark Unno. This month too, we have much to look forward to. On February 3rd our service will be dedicated to Eshin-ni and Kakushin-ni, the first two remarkable women leaders of our denomination. Also on February 3rd we will have our General Membership meeting. That meeting will follow our 10 am service immediately and we hope that as many temple members as possible will attend this meeting. After the General Membership meeting on 2/3/13 we will have a planning meeting for the Buddhist Day in the Park celebration. We have had help from many on this over the past six years, but really need more involvement this year by OBT volunteers. February 10th will be our Nirvana Day service. We hope to see many of you again on the tenth to commemorate the Pari-Nirvana of Sakyamuni Buddha.

In the middle of the month some of us will attend the Northwest District Buddhist Conference. Those of us riding the bus up wish to thank Alice Sumida for her sponsorship, which keeps that part of the convention-going expense down.

For those of you not attending the convention, or otherwise leaving town for the three day weekend, allow me to remind you that there will be a regular 10 am, Sunday service at

OBT.

As our Ho On Ko speaker last month, Rev. Dr. Mark Unno, reminded us we are constantly being washed over, cleansed and transformed "by waves of the Ocean of Great Compassion." This is something to be grateful for, if we can feel it. It is something that may help keep us from shivering in this usually cold month of February. Instead of trying to make ourselves into better people, we just relax, say the nembutsu occasionally, and let the Great Compassion of the Buddha wash over us and change us, ever so gradually, for the better. We are not self-made men or women. We are made who we are by our own choices and by the conditions we grow up in and by the Compassion of the Buddha. As a 60's rocker once said, "The self-made man is truly shallow, for he is only what he wants to be." I did not start out to be a Jodo Shinshu Minister. Such a goal would never have occurred to me when I was 18. I'll give a nice nenju to the first person to walk up to me and identify both the rock star who discouraged us becoming self-made persons and the song from which the line "February made me shiver" comes.

Whether you win the nenju or not, I hope that February does not make you shiver. I hope you will sense that the waves of the Great Ocean of Compassion are washing over you, changing you a bit now and pushing you forward to become that person you truly need to be. As always, I want to thank you for being so kind as to read this article. Be well until I see you next in person.

Gassho, Reverend Gibbs

President's message

Ken Garner, OBT President

So what is the state of my temple?
What went on in 2012?
What are the plans for 2013?

What is our financial situation?

The answer to these and other questions will be addressed at the annual meeting on February 3, 2013 directly after the service. While the Oregon Buddhist Temple is an open book – all board meeting minutes and financial reports are available for members to examine – the annual meeting gives us a chance to get together and talk about the current state of OBT and where we are going. If you have a question for me or the board or have an item you would like to have addressed, you can send it to us via email at board@oregonbuddhisttemple.com. All members are invited and encouraged to attend.

One of the topics we will cover in the meeting (or did cover if you are reading this after February 3) is the focus items for 2013. Besides day-to-day operations, there are 3 areas that the board will direct our efforts this year: 1) Fund Raising Plan; 2) Data Management Plan; 3) Strategic Plan. For fund raising we will closely look at our current effort, which is dependent on a food event model. Can we re-think how we do things? Can the events be refreshed? Are there other fund raising opportunities we should consider? For data management we need a single trusted source for OBT data. What application(s) should we use? Who should have access to the data and for what purposes? How do we secure the data? For strategic planning we will look at where OBT is today, where we envision ourselves in the future, and plot out the steps and actions we need to take to move us in that direction.

I realize that this is an ambitious agenda and one that cannot be completed in a single year. Nevertheless, it is essential for us to start the process to ensure that OBT continues to be a vibrant and viable community. If you have skills and experience in any of these three areas, we need you. If you don't have the experience but are interested in OBT's future, we need you. We need both long-time and new members in order for our efforts to be successful.

2013 has started off with a bang, with the New Year's luncheon, the Ho-Onko seminar and service, and the OBWA party. Thank you all for work you have done and will do for our Sangha this year. 2013 will be a great year.

In gassho,
Ken

From a board member

Scott Winner

In case you haven't heard, I am back on the OBT Board of Directors. Thank you, it is a great honor to serve once again. I will also continue my post as Treasurer of the NW District of BCA. I am really proud of our community and our tradition. These activities are my way of providing support to our mission. I encourage all of you to find your niche, whether it is a Board position, event Chair, Dharma school teacher, Toban participant, Sunday attendee, or kind thoughts. We all benefit from your effort, thank you.

This go around on the board, I am also taking on a new role as Fund Raising Coordination. This is not about chairing event or finding chairs; that is still the responsibility of the Board. What I have committed to, is the preparation of an annual document that outlines our fund raising objectives. The document will list overall event financial objectives, event menus (including a cost and labor assessment) and menu item prices, set at the Board level well in advance of the event. We are hoping that by doing this planning, we will reduce some of the burden on event Chairs. As we go through the year, the Board and I will work through our events as we create the annual plan.

Please be understanding as we work through this process. Our menu items need to be updated to accommodate our aging members, and our pricing needs to be updated so we really get the most out of our efforts. See you all at Spring Bazaar!

OBWA news

Etsu Osaki

We acknowledge the following donations for the OBWA memorial service: Ami Kinoshita, Jean Takashima, Ben and Sumi Ishida, Ben and Darlene Demise, Randy and Dana Kunisaki and anonymous.

Many thanks to those who helped with the soba preparations for the year-end and ho-onko services and also for the ozoni preparation for the New Year service.

Janice Okamoto has resigned as president, therefore, the two vice presidents June Shiigi and Jayne Ichikawa will be leading OBWA.

Many thanks to Alice Ando for her many years as president. She will most certainly still be active helping and advising.

Hope everyone had a great time at the New Year's party at Holladay Park Plaza. Your donations to FISH are much appreciated. Thanks to Jean Matsumoto who makes it possible for us to use the nice facilities.

OBWA will be making Anko (bean paste) on Saturday, February 2 at 9 am. Manju with the Anko filling will be made on Saturday, February 9 at 9 am. Manju will be sold at the Spring bazaar.

OBWA will be cleaning and mending the OBT purple chair cushions (zabuton) on Saturday, February 23 from 9 am to 3 pm. Please bring a simple potluck lunch or snack to share. If needed, we will continue on Sunday, February 24 after refreshments at around 12 pm. Any one is welcomed to join us. Thank you.

A belated happy new year

to the fellow Oregon Buddhist Women's Assn. (OBWA) and members of the Oregon Buddhist Temple. As I leave the position of president of OBWA, I offer congratulations to Jayne Ichikawa and June Shiigi, Co-Vice Presidents who will be guiding the ladies (and gentlemen) into 2013 as their leaders. I know they will do a great job and I hope that in 2013 there will be new members joining this wonderful organization to support our Temple. Jayne and June are making plans for an interesting and busy year.

I appreciate all the cooperation and support I received during the ten plus years, working with a wonderful cabinet and members.

Dharma school news

Amy Peterson, DS Coordinator

Volunteer Opportunities

Would you like to make a difference at OBT?

We have many volunteer opportunities available in the Dharma School. All OBT parents and friends are welcome, but being a parent is not required, nor is being a Dharma expert. We are specifically looking for volunteers to co-chair with our teachers on some upcoming activities.

We are also looking for teacher apprentices for the 2012-13 school year. You don't have to know anything about Buddhism, just have an interest in helping our children learn about living Buddhist. Training is available so contact Amy at dharmaschool@oregonbuddhisttemple.com to inquire about either or both of these opportunities.

Dharma School Wish List

If you have an insulated tea/coffee carafe you're not using, please contact Amy to donate it for use at DS and temple events. Thanks for the label makers!!

Temple New Year Party

Thanks to all the DS students who helped make the snake decorations for the New Year Party. Special thanks to Sho G, Ren G, Mark for decorating, filling goodie bags and Marilyn A. and Kyoko G for making the corsages and boutonnieres. The students sang Okagesama Arigato written by Donna Sasaki. They practiced the Oshogatsu song, but will save that for next year.

Warm Clothing drive

Thanks again for the warm clothing. More donations came in and we took another load to the Janus Youth group on 7th and Davis. They again were very thankful for the donations. Then we got another cold streak so they will definitely find good use. They were very excited to get sweatshirts. Some more donations came in so we will make one more trip. They can really use toothpaste and deodorant so we may try to accommodate their needs.

Feb 24: Dharma School Children's Service, 10am

Meet in the annex for a children's service during the regular OBT service. Service is led by older DS students and DS teachers and volunteers. Parents are welcome to attend with their children, or children are welcome to attend on their own.

Upcoming Dharma School Programs

We will have 7 students attending the NW District Buddhist Convention hosted by White River and at the Doubletree in Tukwila, WA. They'll be practicing a song for the Banquet to advertise our upcoming convention in 2014.

Hanamatsuri

We are looking for help in writing our Hanamatsuri program this year. If you have any ideas or suggestions, please contact Amy Peterson or email us at dharmaschool@oregonbuddhisttemple.com.

If your child is interested in learning to play the taiko, Wynn Kiyama will be leading a group starting after the New Year. Please contact Amy Peterson so we can get a count and you can get details. He has been enlisting the aid of one of our temple members to get drums, stands and bachi ready. If room allows adults may be able to join in.

Girl Scout troop 43720 will be delivering pre-orders Feb 15 through Mar 10th at the Temple on Sundays. If you won't be at Temple during that time, please let the girls know so we can deliver them to your home. Payment taken at time of delivery. Cookies are again $4.00 per box.

You can email us through the temple email OBT DS <dharmaschool@oregonbuddhisttemple.com> and the girls can contact you through their cookie club. Open sale cookies if any are left will be available for purchase up until the Spring Bazaar. The girls use the funds to attend the Nembutsu Camporee. It takes a couple of years to earn enough money to pay for the trip and luckily the Camporee is every two or three years. If you have a Girl Scout not in the Temple troop and want more information about Camporee, please contact Amy Peterson at the DS email above.

Valentines

We will again be making cards to send to Japan Tsunami victims so if you have time or inclination, ask for the supplies and /or find the ones made to sign as encouragement to those in the Sendai area.

DS farewell for now

We are sad that our friends Rys and Nate Mason have moved to Philadelphia, but we hope to see them when they visit periodically. That means we have no lead on the Temple Garden. Nate has done so much for our garden as witnessed by the many interesting and tasty veggies we have sold. He will be hard to replace, but we hope his work will continue. We will require some help so if you have gardening interest or expertise, please let us know. We still have Cathy and Michi who do a lot of work in the garden so you won't be alone. The DS will continue to grow and harvest. Thanks again for all your work, help and guidance. Temple Garden That brought up the Temple Garden. If you have suggestions for this year's planting, please inform one of the DS teacher's and we'll talk to Nate and Cathy to see if we can make it happen. Kale was a favorite this year so we hope to have recipes and preservation guides for it this year. We hope to have more rakyō (pickled scallion) to make some for sale in the fall. One of these days we'll try to plant gobo (burdock) so if you have any suggestions please let us know.

67th NW District Buddhist Convention

Ann Shintani Winner

If you are taking the bus to the White River convention in Seattle Southcenter, please prepare to arrive at 12:30pm for 1:00pm departure on Friday, Feb. 15, 2013. We will be leaving at 1:00pm SHARP (and departing the convention on Sunday, Feb. 17, at Noon)! As participants to the convention, you represent OBT, so please try to attend as many meetings associated with your affiliated group (ministers, NW District, Buddhist Women's Association, Young Buddhist Association, and Dharma School Teachers) as possible. Your input would be greatly appreciated!

Thank you to those who have made donations and in-kind donations to make our OBT participation possible: Mrs. Alice Sumida for making a generous donation towards our bus, Yoshi Ono for making the bus arrangements, OBWA for sponsoring many OBWA members, Dharma School for sponsoring many Dharma School students, the board for donating a raffle item, the Garners for making souvenirs supporting next year's convention in Portland, Etsu Osaki for arranging for our temple display, making the banquet table displays and banquet skit for next year's convention in Portland, Ann Shintani for a paper doll raffle item (with the help of Maho Garner, Carol Saiget, and Etsu Osaki).

Ho-onko seminar

Etsu Osaki

Rev. Dr. Mark Unno, Associate Professor of East Asian Religions at the University of Oregon, was our speaker for five hours on January 19th. He offered much food for thought under the theme "At the Boundaries of the Human Heart: Boundless Compassion and Karmic Limitations."

With numerous stories, some based on his experience as a teacher, he shared heart-warming stories that showed Amida's Wisdom and Compassion.

To emphasize the deep oneness of all sentient beings he quoted Shinran's passage from the Tannisho: "For all sentient beings without exception have been our parents and brothers and sisters in the course of countless lives in many existence."

Especially when we chant the Nembutsu we feel this oneness with all including our ancestors.

We need to work within our karmic limitations. Once again I thought about the theme "Come as you are." We are accepted just as we are.

There was much, much more that he shared including the Dharma talk at the Sunday service. We look forward to hearing him again at OBT's 110th Anniversary service in November.

Lotus circle – February

Changes to toban

Amy Long

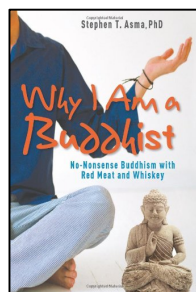

A quick "cheat sheet" of Toban changes:

- 1) Starting February 3rd the Toban teams will not be responsible for snacks after Dharma Exchange
- 2) Anyone is welcome to volunteer to bring refreshments after Dharma Exchange; the sign-up sheet is posted on the refrigerator
- 3) This will free up the time of Toban members so they can focus on Special Services, Events and Monthly cleanup (for example, the Toban schedule in February has only two items!)
- 4) The duty of Tobancho (monthly leaders of a Toban Team) will be rotated between all members of the Toban team (with the exception of the team of Jean Matsumoto).
- 5) The Tobanchos will be responsible for delivering a schedule to those members without an email address.
- 6) The Toban team members are responsible for letting their Tobanchos know they received the Toban schedule and keeping them updated with contact information.

Thank you in advance for helping make this a smooth transition!

OBT readers' club

Ken Garner

Wednesday February 20, 7:00 - 8:30 pm
Why I Am A Buddhist: No-Nonsense Buddhism with Red Meat and Whiskey
 by Stephen T. Asma

There have been a lot of books that have made the case for Buddhism. What makes Why I Am A Buddhist: No-Nonsense Buddhism With Red Meat And Whiskey fresh and exciting is Asma's iconoclasm, irreverence, and hardheaded approach to the subject. He is distressed that much of what passes for Buddhism is really little more than "New Age mush." He loudly asserts that it is time to "take the California out of Buddhism." He presents a spiritual practice that does not require a belief in creeds or dogma. It is a practice that is psychologically sound, intellectually credible, and esthetically appealing. It is a practice that does not require a diet of brown rice, burning incense, and putting both your mind and your culture in deep storage.

Join our discussion of this book (and other topics) at the next meeting of the OBT Readers' Club Wednesday March 21, 2012 from 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm. We meet at the Lucky Lab Brew Pub, located at 915 SE Hawthorne, Portland, OR. The OBT Readers' Club meets monthly on the 3rd Wednesday. All are welcome.

2013 High school graduates Elaine Yuzuriha

Now is the time of year to start thinking about scholarships for after graduation. The Japanese American community scholarship application will be due on March 1st, 2013, which is coming up soon. It's time to get your teacher recommendations in place. Also, invitations to the 66th Annual Japanese American Community Graduation Banquet will be extended to graduates in the Japanese American community. Make sure we know about your contact information so we can send you an invitation to the banquet, which will be held on Sunday, May 5, 2013 at 5pm at the Multnomah Athletic Club. This year's keynote speaker will be OBT's very own Todd Yuzuriha, President of the School Board for the Evergreen School District and co-host for the Junior Achievement podcast "The Money Jar".

Community scholarship applications can be found online through the Portland JACL website, www.pdxjacl.org. If you have any questions or have contact information of any 2013 Japanese American high school graduate in the tri-county area (Multnomah, Washington, Clackamas) and Clark County, WA, please contact Elaine at (360) 253-9532. Your help will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Back entry improvements Carol Saiget

Improvements to the back entry include an additional walk-in cooler, cement work to improve access to temple & cooler, and repair old BBQ area, and new lighting. Many thanks to Kats Amasuga for donating his expertise and time, and Bill Tanaka and Richard Koyama for lending their helping hands to complete this project. The projects were funded by the 100th Anniversary fund.
